Election Volunteers Needed

Last weekend the New Westminster and District Labour Council held a number of labour canvasses for NDP candidates Carol Baird Ellan - Burnaby North - Seymour and Bob D'Eith in Pitt Meadows - Maple Ridge. The canvasses were a great help to the campaigns.

This is a reminder that this weekend the New Westminster and District Labour Council and the Vancouver and District Labour Council have organized a number of labour canvasses with NDP Candidates. Please join one of these canvasses, invite other members of your team, staff and membership as well. We need as many volunteers as possible!

OUR WORKING WATERFRONT, 1945-2015

Come explore work on the New Westminster waterfront over the last 70 years.

July 9 - October 27, 2015 • New Westminister Museum • 3rd floor Anvil Centre, 777 Columbia Street

OUR EXHIBIT SPONSORS

Our Working Waterfront, 1945-2015

AN EXHIBITION EXPLORING THE DIVERSITY OF WORK ON NEW WESTMINSTER'S WATERFRONT

This exhibition explores the diversity of work on the New Westminister waterfront from 1945 to the present, including shipbuilding, longshore work, food service, and tug boating. The exhibit draws on more than 90 oral histories with waterfront workers, and is the culmination of 4 years of collaboration between the New Westminister Museum and Archives, longshore pensioners of ILWU Local 502, teachers in our City's schools of collaboration between the New Westminster Museum and Archives, longshore pensioners of ILWU Local 622, teachers in our City's schools, and Simon Fraser University.

The New Westminster Museum and Archives gratefully acknowledge the financial assistance of the Province of British Columbia.

Waterfront News

Reminder

The Waterfront News is the newsletter produced by ILWU Canada and mailed to members several times per year. The Dispatcher is the newsletter produced by our International Union and is also mailed to members several times per year. ILWU Canada keeps an address database for both of these, but we only receive addresses from the Locals or the Members directly.
